*Inspiration does exist,
but it has to find us
already working!*

Greetings from Jackson Center Schools!

Report Card:

If you happened to see the results of the 2018-19 local report card in the newspapers or online, you probably took note of the multiple categories once again this year. All of the categories have a very targeted purpose for improving the education of our students, but this is the 2nd year for an OVERALL grade. The OVERALL grade is basically an average of all the components which include achievement, progress, gap closing, graduation rate, k-3 literacy and "prepared for success". Jackson Center Schools attained a "C" as an overall grade for the 2018-19 school year. If you would like to dig a little deeper into the report card and look at all the individual categories, feel free to visit the Ohio Department of Education website: <https://reportcard.education.ohio.gov/district/overview/049809>.

While we are not happy with an overall "C" grade, I am more concerned with the factors that fed into our overall grade. At the risk of complaining too much, there are some basic injustices in the report card that affect JC schools.

- 1) Achieving an 'A' in the Prepared for Success component is very tough for most schools. Schools are rewarded for putting kids on a path to college or to a high needs technical field. As we know, not all kids are heading down those paths. This component gives no honor to the truck driver, the farmer, the waste collector, the Airstream worker etc.. We want you to know that we teach our kids that ALL work is honorable regardless of what it says on the report card. Our "D" in this area really dragged us down and unfortunately what we have to live with at the present time.
- 2) Graduation rates are also tough for small schools. A student could never attend JC schools in the elementary, move in as a junior and then drop out when they turn 18 and count against us. Unfortunately this scenario does happen and because of our size, that one drop out is significant to our graduation rate. We also have special needs students that are eligible to stay in school until they are age 22 and yet they are counted against us if they do not graduate with their class. We take getting our kids to graduation very seriously, but there are times that we have very little control.

There are so many strange nuances to the report card that it would be incredibly boring to list them all. Please know that I will continue to share with our community, the Department of Education and our legislators that the most effective schools are the ones that 'achieve' on the state tests despite the challenges kids face in their homes and communities. Those challenges might include mobility, unemployment, drug and alcohol addictions, broken homes and general poverty. Years of testing show us that if those challenges are minimal, achievement on tests will be high. If those challenges exist even at a moderate rate and the achievement is still high, then you know you have a high quality, effective school. Our 97.3 performance index is something to be proud of despite our challenges and we have our sites set even higher. A "C" does not do our parents, teachers and most importantly our students' justice.

Other report card highlights include:

- ◆ JC Schools achieved an "A" in the Gap Closing component. This component measures how our students with special needs and/or minorities achieve on the state tests in comparison to the rest of the student population.
- ◆ JC Schools achieved a "C" in the Progress component. This is actually a strange grading scale because a "C" means that the majority of students showed at least 1 year of growth so anything above that (ie. an "A" or a "B") actually states that there has been MORE than 1 year of growth for most of the students.
- ◆ On the financial side, JC Schools continues to spend well below the state average per pupil and even below most school districts our size and with the same demographics.

◆ Congratulations to the following students who either received a perfect score on a state test or only missed by one point:

- Leighanna Irwin – 3rd grade math
- Maycee Kipker – 3rd grade math
- Eli Prenger – 3rd grade math
- T.J. Reese – 3rd grade math
- Kaiden Geuy – 4th grade math
- Kale Barhorst – 5th grade math
- Tristan Woolley – 5th grade math
- Carter Klopfenstein – 5th grade math
- Preston Serr – 5th grade math
- Wyatt Wentz – 5th grade math
- Kathryn Prenger – 6th grade math

If you have any other questions, please email me at b_reichert@jctigers.org or call 937-596-6053.

Have a great Fall Season!

MIDDLE SCHOOL REWARDS At the end of each nine weeks, the middle school teachers offer a reward day for students who are able to complete their work and maintain good behavior. For the first nine weeks the Middle School Student Council has voted for the middle school to visit VanDemark Farms in Sidney for an afternoon. Information will be coming home in the next couple weeks with all the details. Every student will start with a clean slate for the second nine weeks so if your child does not qualify please encourage them to complete their assignments, have good attendance, and maintain good behavior.

Santa Shop:

We are about two months away from the opening of Santa Shop. Santa's elves have been very busy working to stock the shelves. We are about halfway to our goal of 4000 items. Thank you so much to those of you who have dropped off items. Our young shoppers are going to be delighted with their gift selections.

If you have items to drop off, we would be happy to receive them anytime. You can drop them off at the school or call Susan Ware at 596-6844 for pick up. We thank you as we continue to work to meet our goal of 4000 items and look forward to a successful 2019 .

Jackson Center-UVCC FFA News

On Thursday September 19 1st year FFA members were invited to a free pizza party in order to better familiarize themselves with the officer team and older members of the FFA Chapter. Students also participated in an ice breaker that allowed them to get to know each other a little better and the opportunities that they have in FFA.

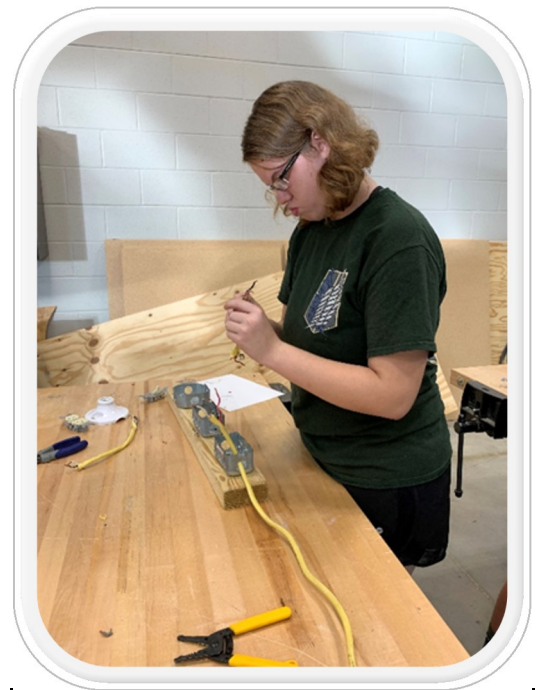

The brand new FFA Reading Program under the direction of Jady Yinger, Megan Argabright, Marion Shaffer, and Lexi Schmiesing kicked off their program Thursday September 26.

For the month of September members organized a reading and activity session with Mrs. Luthman's Pre-K classes about apples. Students read a book about apples and completed an activity to match the theme for the month.

first Friends and Family Dinner at the Farm Sponsored by the Ohio Corn and Wheat Association. Special Thanks goes out to Mann Family Farms of Jackson Center, Ohio who hosted this great networking event.

Jackson Center-UVCC FFA News - continued

We are EXTRA excited to announce that eight members of the Jackson Center FFA Chapter were selected to attend our annual National FFA Convention trip in late October.
